QRS Recruitment tip: Getting all your colleagues singing from the same page

If your site is returning to recruitment after a quiet period, or perhaps you have some new colleagues, why not hold an OPTIMA refresher session. Patients will talk with a host of health care professionals, including surgeons, breast nurse specialists, and radiographers, before they meet oncologists and the research team. What your colleagues say ahead of your discussion about OPTIMA and adjuvant chemotherapy can play a part in shaping how a patient thinks about OPTIMA.

Patient Identifiable Data and Redaction

Recently, we have been receiving reports which are not sufficiently redacted. Whilst we appreciate that this error does happen, we would like to remind you to please take extra care when sending reports to the CTU team.

Proper redaction on all pages is important to ensure that we remain compliant with protocol and, more importantly, to protect participants' interest.

Any unredacted patient information will be recorded as a protocol violation. This includes any emails sent to us, as well as all trial documentation such as pathology reports.

Many thanks for your understanding and ongoing support.

OPTIMA Investigator Meeting

The slides from the Investigator Meeting can be found on the OPTIMA website:

Don't forget to fill in your feedback form (available via the link above) to get your attendance certificate with CPD accreditation.

Annual Follow Up Forms

Thank you to everyone who has returned annual follow up forms recently in response to our data request. Keep them coming!

Lunch With OPTIMA

The next lunch with OPTIMA will take place on Wednesday 24th August at 12:30pm, and will feature an update from ASCO by Dr Andreas Makris.

Dial in details will be sent via email.
